

Book Review Form

1. Please create a book blurb, using a few sentences to sum up what your book communicated to you? (use the reverse of this sheet if you need more space)

2. Did you learn anything new while reading your living book? (please describe)

3. Did this specific “reading” encourage any empathetic feelings for another perspective (or not)?

4. Did your living book allow you to connect with or hear about any communities or experiences, which you are not normally in contact with?

5. Did your living book achieve the overarching goals of a human library. That is to:

Y | N increase dialogue and reduce prejudices

Y | N increase discussion of graffiti, street art and urban creativity in the community

Y | N help community leaders understand how to address diversity issues in relation to graffiti

6. Is there anything else you would like to feed back?
